

Burning Flame Award

Elaine Brennan

Montefiore Medical Center

The Burning Flame Award is given to someone in healthcare with a passion for making a difference and a commitment to helping others. This award recipient inspires others and revitalizes their organization.

Individuals with passion are the true champions of the mission, setting an example and motivating others to join the journey of worthwhile work and making a difference. Where there is passion, innovation, compassion and progress, there you will find the difference makers.
