

We're all inspired at the start of our journey. Inspired Nurse helps us keep that feeling alive...every step of the way.

In this thought-provoking workbook, Rich Bluni, RN reminds nurses and all healthcare employees why we chose this profession. He provides a wealth of action-oriented “spiritual stretches” that help us more fully integrate the gifts of nursing—joy, wonder, gratitude, insight and grief—into our daily lives. His personal stories illuminate those sacred moments we all experience. Inspired Nurse is a welcome validation that when we stay engaged and committed, we’re more likely to provide extraordinary patient care...in terms of both clinical outcomes and human compassion.

Inspired Journal is a wonderful companion that allows you to share your thoughts and stories to strengthen your connection to inspiration.

The author Rich Bluni, RN is a national speaker and coach for Studer Group, but the title of which he is proudest is “Nurse.” An RN since 1993, he chose the profession after seeing the tremendous impact nurses had on his father after he was diagnosed with terminal cancer.

“I saw the great and small things nurses accomplished in their day and realized that there was no higher calling, for me, than to become a nurse,” he says.

Rich has worked in Adolescent Oncology, Pediatric ICU and Trauma ICU departments as well as serving as a Pedi flight and transport nurse. A Licensed Health Care Risk Manager, he has served as ED Nursing Manager and Director of Risk Management and Patient Safety.

Rich and his wife, a nursing professor and former ED and Trauma nurse, live in Boynton Beach, Florida. His sons Rhett and Luke are the greatest joys in his life. Today, he works to improve patient outcomes and encourage the spirits of nurses and all healthcare professionals who have answered the calling to serve others with their hands and hearts.
